2014 Archery Summit, Premier Cuvee Willamette, Oregon

This is the first wine of Archery Summit. a standard in Oregon wine. This elegant wine opens with effusive floral aromas of violet and hyacinth intermingled with hints of powdered chocolate, black licorice, freshly ground coffee beans and Santa Rosa plums.

2014 Pago de Carraovejas, Tinto Fino Ribera del Duero, Spain

This Crianza spends 12 months in French and American oak, and 12 months in bottle. Big red savory character, plum and blackberry flavors, with licorice and floral details emerging on the finish. Dense but balanced, presenting a long, smoky finish.

22 a glass / 110 a bottle

2012 Ségla, Cabernet Blend Margaux, Bordeaux, France

This is the second wine of Chateau Rauzan-Ségla., which is 2^o Growth with a strong tradition in Bordeaux. 2012 was a very good vintage for Bordeaux and ripe vintage; makes wines like this perfect to drink now. Layers of delicate floral and red berry fruits and very long finish.

25 a glass / 125 a bottle

2009 Virginie de Valandraud, Merlot Blend. Saint Emilion, Bordeaux, France

This is the second wine of Chateau Valandraud, which is 1^o Grand Cru Classé. The owner and winemaker Jean Luc Thunevin is a pioneer with the "Vin de garage" movement. In 1995, Valandraud was given a better rating by Robert Parker than Chateau Petrus. 2009 harvest for Bordeaux was at the very best and was a more ripe vintage; making wines like this perfect to drink now or hold if you are able to! Elegant and feminine start with floral characteristics, dark spices and dried black cherries, medium and smooth tannins with a full body.
